

Dear FCC Chair Michael Powell,

This Monday, there is a planned vote on media consolidation. The vote will, in the words of MoveOn.org, "conclude a process which has shown deliberate disregard for the views and opinions of the American people."

I would like the FCC to delay the rule change in order to create further opportunities for informing the public and holding democratic debate about the consequences of the rule change. Secondly, I would like the FCC to release the actual language of the rule change as part of the process of informing the public.

It is essential to allow public involvement in decision making of this magnitude.

Thank you for your consideration.
